V. The Form and Substance of a Trial

A. Elements of a Criminal Case
The criminal code generally defines two aspects of every crime: (1) the physical part, and (2) the mental part. Most crimes specify some physical act, such as firing a gun in a crowded room, plus a guilty or culpable mental state. The intent to commit a crime and a reckless disregard for the consequences of one’s actions are examples of culpable mental states. Bad thoughts alone are not enough; a crime requires the union of thought and action.

The mental state requirements prevent the conviction of an insane person. Such a person cannot form criminal intent and should receive psychological treatment. Also, a defendant may justify his/her actions by showing a lack of criminal intent. For instance, the crime of burglary has two elements: (1) breaking and entering (2) with intent to commit a crime. A person breaking into a burning house to rescue a baby does not commit a burglary.

B. Presumption of Innocence, Proof Beyond a Reasonable Doubt and Applicability to this Case
The American criminal justice system is based on the premise that allowing a guilty person to go free is better than putting an innocent person behind bars. For this reason, the prosecution bears a heavy burden of proof. Defendants are presumed innocent. The prosecution must convince a judge or jury of guilt beyond a reasonable doubt.

Despite its use in every criminal trial, the term “reasonable doubt” is hard to define. The concept of reasonable doubt lies somewhere between the probability of guilt and a lingering possible doubt of guilt. A defendant may be found guilty beyond a reasonable doubt even though a possible doubt remains in the mind of the judge or juror. Conversely, triers of fact might return a verdict of not guilty while still believing that the defendant probably committed the crime. “Beyond a reasonable doubt” is considered to be proof of such a convincing character that one would be willing to rely and act upon it without hesitation in the most important of one’s own affairs.

Jurors often reach verdicts despite contradictory evidence. Two witnesses might give different accounts of the same event. Sometimes a single witness will give a different account of the same event at different times. Such inconsistencies often result from human fallibility rather than intentional lying. The trier of fact (the judges in the Mock Trial competition) applies his/her own best judgment in evaluating inconsistent testimony.

The defendant, Bobby Dousa, is charged with three crimes: Causing Another Person To Ingest A Controlled Substance, Assault In The Fourth Degree, and Harassment. Dousa has pled not guilty to all three charges. A not guilty plea puts in issue each element of each of the crimes with which Dousa has been charged. A plea of not guilty requires the State to prove each element of the crimes beyond a reasonable doubt.

Dousa is presumed innocent and this presumption continues throughout the trial. The defendant must be found not guilty unless the State produces evidence that convinces the trier of fact beyond a reasonable doubt of each element of the crimes.

To prove the charge of Causing Another Person To Ingest A Controlled Substance, the prosecution must show that Dousa knowingly caused Anderson to ingest Rohypnol without Anderson’s consent. The Assault charge refers to Anderson’s loss of consciousness due to nonconsensual ingesting of Rohypnol. So the prosecution has to show that Anderson lost consciousness and that it was because of Dousa’s causing Anderson to ingest Rohypnol without consent. And, finally, to prove Harassment, the prosecution must show that the defendant intentionally subjected Anderson to offensive physical contact by drawing the Raider logo on Anderson’s face and posting a picture of it on the internet.

C. Role Descriptions

1. Attorneys

Trial attorneys control the presentation of evidence at trial and argue the merits of their side of the case. They introduce evidence and question witnesses to bring out the facts surrounding the allegations.

The prosecution presents the case for the State of Oregon. By questioning witnesses, they will try to convince the jury that the defendant, Bobby Dousa, is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt.

The defense attorneys present the case for the defendants, Bobby Dousa. They will offer their own witnesses to present their clients’ version of the facts. They may undermine the prosecution’s case by showing that their witnesses cannot be depended upon, or that their testimony makes no sense, or is seriously inconsistent.

Demeanor of all attorneys is very important. On direct examination it is easy to be sympathetic and supportive of your witnesses. On cross-examination it is no less important to be sympathetic and winning. An effective cross-examination is one in which the cross examiner, the witness, the judge and jury all agree on the outcome. It is bad manners and unethical to be sarcastic, snide, hostile or contemptuous. The element of surprise may, in fact, be a valuable attorney’s tool, but it is best achieved by being friendly and winning in the courtroom, including with the other side.

Attorneys on both sides will:

- conduct direct examination and redirect if necessary;
- conduct cross examination conduct redirect and re-cross if necessary;
- make appropriate objections (note: only the direct and cross-examining attorneys for a particular witness may make objections during that testimony);
- be prepared to act as a substitute for other attorneys; and
- make opening statement and closing arguments.

a. Opening Statement

The opening statement outlines the case it is intended to present. The attorney for plaintiff delivers the first opening statement and the defense follows with the second. A good opening statement should explain what the attorney plans to prove, how it will be proven; mention the burden of proof and applicable law; and present the events (facts) of the case in an orderly, easy to understand manner.

One way to begin your statement could be as follows:

“Your Honor, my name is [full name], representing the prosecution/defendant in this case.”

Proper phrasing in an opening statement includes:

- “The evidence will indicate that ...”
• “The facts will show that ...”
• “Witnesses (full names) will be called to tell ...”
• “The defendant will testify that ...”

_Tips:_ You should appear confident, make eye contact with the judges, and use the future tense in describing what your side will present. Do not read your notes word for word – use your notes sparingly and only for reference.

b. Direct Examination
Attorneys conduct direct examination of their own witnesses to bring out the facts of the case. Direct examination should:

- call for answers based on information provided in the case materials;
- reveal all of the facts favorable to your position;
- ask questions which allow the witness to tell the story. Do not ask leading questions which call for only “yes” or “no” answers – leading questions are only appropriate during cross-examination;
- make the witness seem believable;
- keep the witness from rambling.

Call for the witness with a formal request:

“Our Honor, I would like to call (full name of witness) to the stand.”
The clerk will swear in the witness before you ask your first question.

It is good practice to ask some introductory questions of the witness to help him or her feel comfortable. Appropriate introductory questions might include asking the witness’ name, residence, present employment, etc.

Proper phrasing of questions on direct examination include:

- “Could you please tell the court what occurred on (date)?”
- “How long did you remain in that spot?”
- “Did anyone do anything while you waited?”

Conclude your direct examination with:

“Thank you Mr./s. ________. That will be all, your Honor.”

_Tips:_ Isolate exactly what information each witness can contribute to proving your case and prepare a series of clear and simple questions designed to obtain that information. Be sure all items you need to prove your case will be presented through your witnesses. Never ask questions to which you do not know the answer. Listen to the answers. If you need a moment to think, it is appropriate to ask the judge for a moment to collect your thoughts, or to discuss a point with co-counsel.

c. Cross Examination, Redirect, Re-Cross, and Closing
For cross examination, see explanations, examples, and tips for _Rule 611_.

For redirect and re-cross, see explanation and note to _Rule 40_ and _Rule 611_.

For closing, see explanation to _Rule 41_.

2. Witnesses
Witnesses supply the facts in the case. As a witness, the official source of your testimony, or record, is your witness statement, all stipulations, and exhibits you would reasonably have knowledge of. The witness statements contained in the packet should be viewed as signed and sworn affidavits.

You may testify to facts stated in or reasonably inferred from your record. If an attorney asks you a question, and there is no answer to it in your official statement, you can choose how to answer it. You may reply, “I don’t know” or “I can’t remember,” or you can infer an answer from the facts you do officially know. Inferences are only allowed if they are reasonable. If your inference contradicts your official statement, you can be impeached. Also see Rule 3.

It is the responsibility of the attorneys to make the appropriate objections when witnesses are asked to testify about something that is not generally known or cannot be inferred from the witness statement.

3. Court Clerk, Bailiff, Team Manager
It is recommended that you provide two separate team members for these roles. If you use only one, then that person must be prepared to perform as clerk and bailiff in every trial. The court clerk and bailiff aid the judge during the trial. For the purpose of the competition, the duties described below are assigned to the roles of clerk and bailiff.

The prosecution is expected to provide the clerk. The defense provides the bailiff.

When evaluating the teams, judges will consider contributions by the clerk and bailiff.

a. Duties of the Clerk – Provided by the Prosecution
When the judge arrives in the courtroom introduce yourself and explain that you will assist as the court clerk. The clerk’s duties are as follows:

1. Roster and rules of competition: The clerk is responsible for bringing a roster of students and their roles to each trial round. You should have enough copies to be able to give a roster to each judge in every round as well as a few extras. Use the roster form in the mock trial packet. In addition, the clerk is responsible for bringing a copy of the “Rules of Competition.” In the event that questions arise and the judge needs clarification, the clerk shall provide this copy to the judge.

2. Swear in the witnesses: Every witness should be sworn in as follows:

   “Do you promise that the testimony you are about to give will faithfully and truthfully conform the facts and rules of the Mock Trial Competition?”

   Witness responds, “I do.”

   Clerk then says, “Please be seated and state your name for the court and spell your last name.”

3. Provide exhibits for attorneys or judges if requested (both sides should have their own exhibits, however, it is a well-prepared clerk who has spares).

A proficient clerk is critical to the success of a trial and points will be given on his or her performance.
b. Duties of the Bailiff – Provided by the Defense

When the judges arrive in the courtroom, introduce yourself and explain that you will assist as the court bailiff. The bailiff’s duties are to call the court to order and to keep time during the trial.

1. Call to Order: As the judges enter the courtroom, say, “All rise. The Court with the Honorable Judge ______ presiding, is now in session. Please be seated and come to order.”
   Say, “all rise” whenever the judges enter or leave the room.

2. Timekeeping: The bailiff is responsible for bringing a stopwatch to the trial. The stopwatch cannot be a cell phone; no electronic devices are permitted (Rule 40). Be sure to practice with it and know how to use it before the competition. Follow the time limits set for each segment of the mock trial and keep track of the time used and time left on the time sheet provided in the mock trial materials.

   Time should stop when attorneys make objections. Restart after the judge has ruled on the objection and the next question is asked by the attorney. The time should also stop if the judge questions a witness or attorney.

   After each witness has finished testifying, announce the time remaining, e.g., if after direct examination of two witnesses, the prosecution has used twelve minutes, announce “8 minutes remaining” (20 minutes total allowed for direct/redirect, less the twelve minutes already used). When the time has run out for any segment of the trial, announce “Time” and hold up the “0” card. After each witness has completed his or her testimony, mark on the time sheet the time to the nearest one-half minute. When three minutes are left, hold up “3” minute card, then again at “1” minute, and finally at “0” minutes. Be sure time cards are visible to all the judges as well as to the attorneys when you hold them up.

   Time cards will be provided at the competition with enough time sheets for all rounds. Time cards (3, 1, 0 minute) will be provided in each courtroom. Leave them in the courtroom for the next trial round.

   A competent bailiff who times both teams in a fair manner is critical to the success of a trial and points will be given on his/her performance.

c. Team Manager, Unofficial Timer (both optional)

   Team Manager (optional)

   Teams may wish to have a person act as its team manager. She or he could be responsible for tasks such as keeping phone numbers of all team members and ensuring that everyone is informed of meeting times, listserv posts, and so on. In case of illness or absence, the manager could also keep a record of all witness testimony and a copy of all attorneys’ notes so that someone else may fill in if necessary. This individual could be the clerk or bailiff. An official team manager is not required for the competition.

   Unofficial Timer (optional)

   Teams may, at their option, provide an unofficial timer during the trial rounds. The unofficial timer can be a Clerk or a currently performing attorney from prosecution’s side. This unofficial timer must be identified before the trial begins and may check time with the bailiff twice during the trial (once during the prosecution’s case-in-chief and once during the presentation of the defense’s case). When possible, the unofficial timer should sit next to the official timer.
Any objections to the bailiff’s official time must be made by the unofficial timer during the trial, before the judges score the round. The presiding judge shall determine if there has been a rule violation and whether to accept the Bailiff’s time or make a time adjustment. Only currently-performing team members in the above-stated roles may serve as unofficial timers.

To conduct a time check, request one from the presiding judge and ask the Bailiff how much time was recorded in every completed category for both teams. Compare the times with your records. If the times differ significantly, notify the judge and ask for a ruling as to the time remaining. If the judge approves your request, consult with the attorneys and determine if you want to add or subtract time in any category. If the judge does not allow a consultation, you may request an adjustment. You may use the following sample questions and statements:

- “Your Honor, before calling the next witness, may I compare time records with the Bailiff?”
- “Your Honor, there is a discrepancy between my records and those of the Bailiff. May I consult with the attorneys on my team before requesting a ruling from the court?”
- “Your Honor, we respectfully request that ___ minutes/seconds be subtracted from the prosecution’s (direct examination/cross-examination/etc.).”
- “Your Honor, we respectfully request that ___ minutes/seconds be added to the defense (direct examination/cross-examination/etc.).”

Do NOT interrupt the trial for minor time differences; your team should determine in advance a minimum time discrepancy to justify interrupting the trial. The unofficial timer should be prepared to show records and defend requests. Frivolous complaints will be considered by judges when scoring the round; likewise, valid complaints will be considered against the violating team.

Time shall be stopped during the period timekeeping is questioned.

VI. RULES OF THE COMPETITION

A. Administration

Rule 1. Rules
All trials will be governed by the Rules of the Oregon High School Mock Trial Competition and the Federal Rules of Evidence – Mock Trial Version.

Rules of the competition as well as courthouse and security rules, and courtroom decorum must be followed. Competition Coordinators have the authority to impose sanctions, up to and including forfeiture or disqualification, for any misconduct, flagrant rule violations, or breaches of decorum that affect the conduct of a trial or that impugn the reputation or integrity of any team, school, participant, court officer, judge, or mock trial program. Questions or interpretations of these rules are within the discretion of CLASSROOM LAW PROJECT; its decision is final.

Rule 2. The Problem
The problem is a fact pattern that contains statement of fact, stipulations, witness statements, exhibits, etc. Stipulations may not be disputed at trial. Witness statements may not be altered.
Rule 3. Witness Bound By Statements

Each witness is bound by the facts contained in his or her own witness statement, also known as an affidavit, and/or any necessary documentation relevant to his or her testimony. Fair extrapolations may be allowed, provided reasonable inference may be made from the witness’ statement. If, in direct examination, an attorney asks a question that calls for extrapolated information pivotal to the facts at issue, the information is subject to objection under Rule 4, Unfair Extrapolation.

If in cross-examination, an attorney asks for unknown information, the witness may or may not respond, so long as any response is consistent with the witness’ statement and does not materially affect the witness’ testimony. A witness may be asked to confirm (or deny) the presence (or absence) of information in his or her statement.

Example: A cross-examining attorney may ask clarifying questions such as, “isn’t it true that your statement contains no information about the time the incident occurred?”

A witness is not bound by facts contained in other witness statements.

Explanation: Witnesses will supply the facts in the case. Witnesses may testify only to facts stated in or reasonably inferred from their own witness statements or fact situation. On direct examination, when your side’s attorney asks you questions, you should be prepared to tell your story. Know the questions your attorney will ask and prepare clear and convincing answers that contain the information that your attorney is trying to get you to say. However, do not recite your witness statement verbatim. Know its content beforehand so you can put it into your own words. Be sure that your testimony is never inconsistent with, nor a material departure from, the facts in your statement.

In cross-examination, anticipate what you will be asked and prepare your answers accordingly. Isolate all possible weaknesses, inconsistencies, or other problems in your testimony and be prepared to explain them as best you can. Be sure that your testimony is never inconsistent with, nor a material departure from, the facts in your statement. Witnesses may be impeached if they contradict what is in their witness statements (Evidence Rule 607).

Witness statements should be viewed as signed statements made in sworn depositions. If you are asked a question calling for an answer that cannot reasonably be inferred from the materials provided, you must reply something like, “I don’t know” or “I can’t remember.” It is up to the attorney to make the appropriate objection when witnesses are asked to testify about something that is not generally known or cannot be reasonably inferred from the fact situation or witness statement.

Rule 4. Unfair Extrapolation

Unfair extrapolations are best attacked through impeachment and closing arguments. A fair extrapolation is one that is neutral. Attorneys shall not ask questions calling for information outside the scope of the case materials or requesting unfair extrapolation.

If a witness is asked information not contained in the witness’ statement, the answer must be consistent with the statement and may not materially affect the witness’ testimony or any substantive issue of the case.
Attorneys for the opposing team may refer to Rule 4 when objecting, such as “unfair extrapolation” or “outside the scope of the mock trial materials.” Possible rulings a judge may give include:

a) no extrapolation has occurred;
b) an unfair extrapolation has occurred;
c) the extrapolation was fair; or
d) ruling taken under advisement.

When an attorney objects to an extrapolation, the judge will rule in open court to clarify the course of further proceedings (see FRE 602 and Rule 3). The decision of the presiding judge regarding extrapolation or evidentiary matters is final.

Rule 5. Gender of Witnesses

Any student may portray the role of any witness of either gender. Personal pronouns in witness statements indicating gender of the characters may be made. Teams SHALL indicate members’ genders on the Team Roster for the benefit of judges and opposing counsel.

B. The Trial

Rule 6. Team Eligibility, Teams to State

Teams competing in the Oregon High School Mock Trial Competition must register their team(s) by the registration deadline. A school may register one, two or three teams.

To participate in the state finals, a team must successfully compete at the regional level. Teams will be assigned to their regions by CLASSROOM LAW PROJECT in January.

All regional competitions are Saturday, February 27. Teams should be aware, however, that it is subject to change. The Regional Coordinator has discretion to slightly alter the date depending on scheduling requirements, availability of courtrooms, and needs of teams. If dates change, every effort will be made to notify all times in a timely manner.

Teams will be notified of the region in which they will compete after registration closes in January. Teams are not guaranteed to be assigned to the same region they were in last year.

All teams participating at the regional level must be prepared to compete at the state level should they finish among the top their region. Students on the team advancing to the state competition must be the same as those in the regional competition. Should a team be unable to compete in the state competition, CLASSROOM LAW PROJECT may designate an alternate team. The state finals are scheduled for March 11-12, in Portland.

The following formula will be used to determine the number of teams that advance to the state competition:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>No. of Teams in Region</th>
<th>No. of Teams to State</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>4-5</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6-10</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11-15</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16-20</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>21-25</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
Rule 7. Team Composition
A mock trial team consists of a minimum of eight and up to a maximum of 18 students all from the same school. Additional students could be used in support roles as researchers, understudies, photographers, court artists, court reporters, news reporters, etc. However, none of these roles will be used in the competition. Schools are encouraged to use the maximum number of students allowable.

Note: At the National High School Mock Trial Competition, teams consist of a maximum of eight members with six participating in any given round. Thus, Oregon’s winning team may have to scale back on the number of team members to participate at the national level.

A mock trial team is defined as an entity that includes attorneys and witnesses for both the prosecution and defense (students may play a role on the prosecution side as well as on the defense side if necessary), clerk, and a bailiff. One possible team configuration could be:

- 3 attorneys for the prosecution
- 3 attorneys for defense
- 3 witnesses for the prosecution
- 3 witnesses for the defense
- 1 clerk
- 1 bailiff
- 14 TOTAL

All team members, including teacher and attorney coaches, are required to wear name badges at all levels of competition. Badges are provided by the competition coordinator.

All mock trial teams must submit the Team Roster (see appendix) form listing the team name and all coaches and students to the Competition Coordinators at the student orientation. If a school enters more than one team, team members cannot switch teams at any time for any round of regional or state competition.

For schools entering one team, the team name will be the same as the school name. For schools entering two teams, the team names will be your school name plus a school color (for example, West Ridge Black and West Ridge Blue).

For purposes of pairings in the competition, all teams will be assigned letter designations such as AB or CD. This addresses concerns related to bias in judging due to school name. Teams will be assigned letter codes by CLASSROOM LAW PROJECT prior to the competition. Notification of letter code designations will be made via the mock trial listserv.

Rule 8. Team Presentation
Teams must present both the prosecution and defense sides of the case. All team members must be present and ready to participate in all rounds. The competition coordinators guarantee that both the prosecution and defense sides of every team will have at least one opportunity to argue its side of the case.

Note: Because teams are power-matched after Round 1, there is no guarantee that in Round 2 the other side of your team will automatically argue. However, if, for example, in Rounds 1 and 2 your prosecution side argued, then you are guaranteed that in Round 3 the defense side will argue. Parents should be made aware of this rule.
Rule 9.  Emergencies
During a trial, the presiding judge shall have discretion to declare an emergency and adjourn the trial for a short period to address the emergency.

In the event of an emergency that would cause a team to participate with less than eight members, the team must notify the Competition Coordinator as soon as is reasonably practical. If the Coordinator, in his or her sole discretion, agrees that an emergency exists, the Coordinator shall declare an emergency and will decide whether the team will forfeit or may direct that the team take appropriate measures to continue any trial round with less than eight members. A penalty may be assessed.

A forfeiting team will receive a loss and points totaling the average number of the team ballots and points received by the losing teams in that round. The non-forfeiting team will receive a win and an average number of ballots and points received by the winning teams in that round.

Final determination of emergency, forfeiture, reduction of points, or advancement will be made by the Competition Coordinator.

Rule 10.  Team Duties
Team members should divide their duties as evenly as possible. Opening statements must be given by both sides at the beginning of the trial. The attorney who will examine a particular witness on direct is the only person who may make the objections to the opposing attorney’s questions of that witness’ cross-examination; and the attorney who will cross-examine a witness will be the only one permitted to make objections during the direct examination of that witness.

Each team must call all three witnesses; failure to do so results in a mandatory two-point penalty. Witnesses must be called by their own team and examined by both sides. Witnesses may not be recalled by either side.

Rule 11.  Swearing In the Witnesses
The following oath may be used before questioning begins:

“Do you promise that the testimony you are about to give will faithfully and truthfully conform to the facts and rules of the mock trial competition?”

The clerk, provided by the prosecution, swears in all witnesses.

Rule 12.  Trial Sequence and Time Limits – NEW THIS YEAR
Each side will have 43 minutes to present its case (this year slightly more time allotted for direct and cross-examination). The trial sequence and time limits are as follows:

1.  Introductory matters 5 minutes total (conducted by judge)*
2.  Opening Statement 5 minutes per side
3.  Direct and Redirect (optional) 22 minutes per side
4.  Cross and re-cross (optional) 11 minutes per side
5.  Closing argument 5 minutes per side
6.  Judges’ deliberations 10 minutes total (judges in private)*

*Not included in 43 minutes allotted for each side of the case.
Prosecution may reserve time for rebuttal at the beginning its closing argument.
Presiding Judge should grant time for rebuttal even if time has not been explicitly reserved.
The prosecution gives the opening statement first. And the prosecution gives the closing argument first and should reserve a portion of its closing time for a rebuttal if desired. The rebuttal is limited to the scope of the defense’s closing argument.

None of the foregoing may be waived (except rebuttal), nor may the order be changed.

The attorneys are not required to use the entire time allotted to each part of the trial. Time remaining in one part of the trial may not be transferred to another part of the trial.

Rule 13. Timekeeping

Time limits are mandatory and will be enforced. The official timekeeper is the bailiff and is provided by the defense. Timekeepers shall not use a cell phone as a stopwatch. (No electronic devices are permitted – Rule 40). An optional unofficial timer may also be provided by the prosecution according to the directions in Section V.E.3.c. Unofficial Timer.

- Timing will halt during objections, extensive questioning from a judge, and administering the oath.
- Timing will not halt during the admission of evidence unless there is an objection by opposing counsel.
- Three- and one-minute card warnings must be given before the end of each trial segment.
- Students will be automatically stopped by the bailiff at the end of the allotted time for each segment.
- The bailiff will also time the judges' scoring time after the trial; the judging panel is allowed 10 minutes to complete their ballots. When the time has elapsed, the bailiff will notify the judges that no time is remaining.

Rule 14. Time Extensions and Scoring

The presiding judge has sole discretion to grant time extensions. If time has expired and an attorney continues without permission from the Court, the scoring judges may determine individually whether to deduct points because of overruns in time.

Rule 15. Supplemental Material, Illustrative Aids, Costuming

Teams may refer only to materials included in the trial packet. No illustrative aids of any kind may be used, unless provided in the case materials. No enlargements of the case materials will be permitted. Absolutely no props or costumes are permitted unless authorized specifically in the case materials or CLASSROOM LAW PROJECT. Use of easels, flip charts and the like is prohibited. Violation of this rule may result in a lower team score.

Rule 16. Trial Communication

Coaches, non-performing team members, alternates and observers shall not talk, signal, communicate with or coach their teams during trial. This rule remains in force during any recess time that may occur. Performing team members may, among themselves, communicate during the trial, however, no disruptive communication is allowed. There must be no spectator or non-performing team member contact with the currently performing student team members once the trial begins.

Everyone in the courtroom shall turn off all electronic devices except stopwatches by the timer(s).
Non-team members, alternate team members, teachers, and coaches must remain outside the bar in the spectator section of the courtroom. Only team members participating in the round may sit inside the bar.

There will be an automatic two-point deduction from a team’s total score if the coach, other team members or spectators are found in violation of this rule by the Judges or Competition Coordinators. Competition Coordinators may exercise their discretion if they find a complaint is frivolous or the conversation was harmless.

Rule 17. Viewing a Trial
Team members, alternates, coaches, teacher-sponsors, and any other persons directly associated with a mock trial team, except those authorized by the Coordinator, are not allowed to view other teams in competition, so long as their team remains in the competition.

Rule 18. Videotaping, Photography, Media
Any team has the option to refuse participation in videotaping, tape recording, still photography or media coverage. However, media coverage shall be allowed by the two teams in the championship round.

C. Judging and Team Advancement

Rule 19. Decisions
All decisions of the judging panel are FINAL.

Rule 20. Composition of Panel
The judging panel will consist of three individuals: one presiding judge, one attorney judge, and one educator/community judge. All three judges shall score teams. The presiding judge shall cast a ballot based on overall team performances; the attorney judge shall cast a ballot based on the performance of the attorneys; and the educator/community judge shall cast a ballot based on the performance of the witnesses, clerk and bailiff. All judges receive the mock trial case materials, a memorandum outlining the case, orientation materials, plus a briefing in a judges’ orientation.

During the final championship round of the state competition, the judges' panel may be comprised of more than three members at the discretion of CLASSROOM LAW PROJECT.

Rule 21. Ballots
The term “ballot” refers to the decision made by a judge as to which team had the better performance. Each judge casts a ballot based on specific team members’ performances: presiding judge votes on overall team performances, attorney judge votes on the attorneys, and the educator/community judge votes on the performance of the witnesses, clerk and bailiff. Each judge completes his or her own ballot. Ties and fractional points are not allowed. The team that earns the most points on an individual judge’s ballot is the winner of that ballot. The team that receives the majority of the three ballots wins the round. The winner of the round shall not be announced during the competition. Sample ballots are included in the Appendix.
Rule 22.  Team Advancement

Teams will be ranked based on the following criteria in the order listed:

1. Win/Loss record - equals the number of rounds won or lost by a team;
2. Total number of ballots - equals the number of judges’ votes a team earned in preceding rounds;
3. Total number of points accumulated in each round;
4. Point spread against opponents – used to break a tie, the point spread is the difference between the total points earned by the team whose tie is being broken less the total points of that team’s opponent in each previous round. The greatest sum of these point spreads will break the tie in favor of the team with the largest cumulative point spread.

Rule 23.  Power Matching

A random draw will determine opponents in the first round. A power-match system will determine opponents for all other rounds. The schools emerging with the strongest record from the three rounds will advance to the state competition and final round. At the state competition, as between the top two teams in the final championship round, the winner will be determined by ballots from the championship round only.

Power-matching provides that:
1. Pairings for the first round will be at random;
2. All teams are guaranteed to present each side of the case at least once;
3. Brackets will be determined by win/loss record. Sorting within brackets will be determined in the following order: (1) win/loss record, (2) ballots, and (3) total presentation points. The team with the highest number of ballots in the bracket will be matched with the team with the lowest number of ballots in the bracket; the next highest with the next lowest, and so on until all teams are paired;
4. If there is an odd number of teams in a bracket, the team at the bottom of that bracket will be matched with the top team from the next lower bracket;
5. Efforts are made to assure that teams do not meet the same opponent twice;
6. To the greatest extent possible, teams will alternate side presentation in subsequent rounds;
7. Bracket integrity in power matching supersedes alternate side presentation.

Competition Coordinators in smaller regions (generally fewer than eight teams) have the discretion to modify power matching rules to create a fairer competition.

Rule 24.  Merit Decisions

Judges are not required to make a ruling on the legal merits of the trial. The presiding judge, at his or her discretion, may inform students of a hypothetical verdict. Judges shall not inform the teams of score sheet or ballot results.

Rule 25.  Effect of Bye, Default or Forfeiture

A “bye” is necessary when an odd number of teams compete in a region. The byes will be assigned based on a random draw. For the purpose of advancement and seeding, when a team draws a bye or wins by default, that team will be given a win and the average number of ballots and points earned in its preceding trials. A forfeiting team will receive a loss and points totaling the average received by the losing teams in that round. If a trial cannot continue, the other team will receive a win and an average number of ballots and points received by the winning teams in that round.

D. Dispute Settlement

Rule 26. Reporting Rules Violation – Inside the Bar
At the conclusion of the trial round, the presiding judge will ask each side if it needs to file a dispute. If a team has serious reason to believe that a material rules violation has occurred including the Code of Ethical Conduct, one of its student attorneys shall indicate that the team intends to file a dispute. The student attorney may communicate with co-counsel and student witnesses before lodging the notice of dispute or in preparing the form (Appendix, Rule 26 form). At no time in this process may team sponsors or coaches communicate or consult with the student attorneys. Only student attorneys may invoke dispute procedure. Teams filing frivolous disputes may be penalized.

Rule 27. Dispute Resolution Procedure
The presiding judge will review the written dispute and determine whether the dispute deserves a hearing or should be denied. If the dispute is denied, the judge will record the reasons and announce her/his decision to the Court, then retire along with the other judges to complete the scoring process.

If the judge determines the grounds for the dispute merit a hearing, the form will be shown to opposing counsel for their written response. After the team has recorded its response and transmitted it to the judge, the judge will ask each team to designate a spokesperson. After the spokespersons have had time (five minutes maximum) to prepare their arguments, the judge will conduct a hearing on the dispute, providing each team’s spokesperson three minutes for a presentation. The spokespersons may be questioned by the judge. At no time in this process may team sponsors or coaches communicate or consult with the student attorneys. After the hearing, the presiding judge will adjourn the court and retire to consider her or his ruling on the dispute. That decision will be recorded in writing on the dispute form, with no further announcement.

Rule 28. Effect of Violation on Score
If the presiding judge determines that a substantial rules violation or a violation of the Code of Ethical Conduct has occurred, the judge will inform the scoring judges of the dispute and provide a summary of each team’s argument. The judges will consider the dispute before reaching their final decisions. The dispute may or may not affect the final decision, but the matter will be left to the discretion of the scoring judges. The decisions of the judges are FINAL.

Rule 29. Reporting Rules Violation – Outside the Bar
Charges of ethical violations that involve people other than performing student team members must be made promptly to a Competition Coordinator, who will ask the complaining party to complete a dispute form, found in the Appendix, Rule 30 form. The form will be taken to the coordinator’s communication center, where the panel will rule on any action to be taken regarding the charge, including notification of the judging panel. Violations occurring during a trial involving students competing in a round will be subject to the dispute process described in Rules 26-28.
VII. RULES OF PROCEDURE

A. Before the Trial

Rule 30. Team Roster
Copies of the Team Roster form (see Appendix) shall be completed and duplicated by each team prior to arrival at the courtroom for each round of competition. Teams must be identified by their letter code only; no information identifying team origin should appear on the form. Before beginning a trial, the teams shall exchange copies of the Team Roster Form. Witness lists shall identify the gender of each witness for the benefit of the judges and the opposing team.

Rule 31. Stipulations
Stipulations shall be considered part of the record and already admitted into evidence.

Rule 32. The Record
No stipulations, pleadings, or jury instructions shall be read into the record.

Rule 33. Courtroom Seating
The prosecution team shall be seated closest to the jury box. No team shall rearrange the courtroom without permission of the judge.

B. Beginning the Trial

Rule 34. Jury Trial
The case will be tried to a jury; arguments are to be made to the judge and jury. Teams may address the scoring judges as the jury.

Rule 35. Motions Prohibited
The only motion permissible is one requesting the judge to strike testimony following a successful objection to its admission.

Rule 36. Standing During Trial
Unless excused by the judge, attorneys will stand while giving opening statements and closing arguments, during direct and cross examinations, and for all objections.

Rule 37. Objection During Opening Statement, Closing Argument
No objections shall be raised during opening statements or during closing arguments.

Note: It will be the presiding judge’s responsibility to handle any legally inappropriate statements made in the closing; all judges may consider the matter’s weight when scoring.

C. Presenting Evidence

Rule 38. Objections
1. Argumentative Questions: An attorney shall not ask argumentative questions.

   Example: during cross-examination of an expert witness the attorney asks, "you aren't as smart as you think you are, are you? "

57
2. Lack of Proper Foundation: Attorneys shall lay a proper foundation prior to moving the admission of evidence. After the exhibit has been offered into evidence, the exhibit may still be objected to on other grounds.

3. Assuming Facts Not In Evidence: Attorneys may not ask a question that assumes unproven facts. However, an expert witness may be asked a question based upon stated assumptions, the truth of which is reasonably supported by the evidence (sometimes called a "hypothetical question").

4. Questions Calling for Narrative or General Answer: Questions must be stated so as to call for specific answer.

   Example: "tell us what you know about the case."

5. Non-Responsive Answer: A witness’ answer is objectionable if it fails to respond to the question asked.

   Warning: this objection also applies to the witness who talks on and on unnecessarily in an apparent ploy to run out the clock at the expense of the other team.

6. Repetition: Questions designed to elicit the same testimony or evidence previously presented in its entirety are improper if merely offered as a repetition of the same testimony or evidence from the same or similar source.

Teams are not precluded from raising additional objections so long as they are based on Mock Trial Rules of Evidence or other mock trial rules. Objections not related to mock trial rules are not permissible.

Rule 39. Procedure for Introduction of Exhibits

As an example, the following steps effectively introduce evidence:

Note: Steps 1 - 3 introduce the item for identification.

1. Hand copy of exhibit to opposing counsel while asking permission to approach the bench. “I am handing the Clerk what has been marked as Exhibit X. I have provided copy to opposing counsel. I request permission to show Exhibit X to witness ________.”

2. Show the exhibit to the witness. “Can you please identify Exhibit X for the Court?”

3. The witness identifies the exhibit.

   Note: Steps 4-8 offer the item into evidence.

4. Offer the exhibit into evidence. “Your Honor, we offer Exhibit X into evidence at this time. The authenticity of the exhibit has been stipulated.”

5. Court, “Is there an objection?” If opposing counsel believes a proper foundation has not been laid, the attorney should be prepared to object at this time.

6. Opposing Counsel, “no, your Honor,” or “yes, your Honor.” If the response is “yes,” the objection will be stated on the record. Court, “Is there any response to the objection?”

7. Court, “Exhibit X is/not admitted.”

   The attorney may then proceed to ask questions.

8. If admitted, Exhibit X becomes a part of the Court’s official record and, therefore, is handed over to the Clerk. Do not leave the exhibit with the witness or take it back to counsel table. Attorneys do not present admitted evidence to the jury (judges in jury box) because they have exhibits in their case materials; thus, there is no “publishing” to the jury.

Rule 40. Use of Notes; Electronic Devices Prohibited

Attorneys may use notes when presenting their cases. Witnesses, however, are not permitted to use notes while testifying during the trial. Attorneys may consult with each other at counsel table verbally or through the use of notes. The use of laptops or other electronic devices is prohibited.

Rule 41. Redirect, Re-Cross

Redirect and re-cross examinations are permitted, provided they conform to the restrictions in Rule 611(d) in the Federal Rules of Evidence (Mock Trial Version). For both redirect and re-cross, attorneys are limited two questions each.

Explanation: Following cross-examination, the counsel who called the witness may conduct re-direct examination. Attorneys re-direct to clarify new (unexpected) issues or facts brought out in the immediately preceding cross-examination only; they may not bring up other issues. Attorneys may or may not want to re-direct. If an attorney asks questions beyond the issues raised on cross, they may be objected to as “outside the scope of cross-examination.” It is sometimes more beneficial not to conduct it for a particular witness. The attorneys will have to pay close attention to what is said during cross-examination of their witnesses so that they may decide whether it is necessary to conduct re-direct. Once re-direct is finished, the cross examining attorney may conduct re-cross to clarify issues brought out in the immediately preceding re-direct examination only.

If the credibility or reputation for truthfulness of the witness is attacked on cross-examination, during re-direct the attorney whose witness has been damaged may wish to “save” the witness. These questions should be limited to the damage the attorney thinks was done and should enhance the witness’ truth-telling image in the eyes of the Court. Work closely with your attorney coach on re-direct and re-cross strategies. Remember that time will be running during both re-direct and re-cross and may take away from the time needed to question other witnesses.

Note: Redirect and re-cross time used will be deducted from total time allotted for direct and cross-examination for each side.

D. Closing Arguments

Rule 42. Scope of Closing Arguments

Closing arguments must be based on the actual evidence and testimony presented during the trial.

Explanation: a good closing argument summarizes the case in the light most favorable to your position. The prosecution delivers the first closing argument. The prosecution side should reserve time for rebuttal before beginning its closing argument and the judge should grant it. The closing argument of the defense concludes that side’s the presentation.

A good closing should:

- be spontaneous and synthesize what actually happened in court rather than being a rehearsed speech;
• be emotionally charged and strongly appealing (unlike the calm opening statement);
• emphasize the facts that support the claims of your side, but not raise any new facts, by reviewing the witnesses’ testimony and physical evidence;
• outline the strengths of your side’s witnesses and the weaknesses of the other side’s witnesses;
• isolate the issues and describe briefly how your presentation addressed these issues;
• summarize the favorable testimony;
• attempt to reconcile inconsistencies that might hurt your side;
• be well-organized, clear and persuasive (start and end with your strongest point);
• the plaintiff should emphasize that it has proven its case by a preponderance of the evidence;
• the defense should raise questions that show one or more elements were not proven by a preponderance of the evidence.

Proper phrasing includes:
“ar evidence has clearly shown that ...”
“Based on this testimony, there is doubt that ...”
“The plaintiff has failed to prove by a preponderance of the evidence that ...”
“The defense would have you believe that ...”

Plaintiff should conclude the closing argument with an appeal, based on a preponderance of the evidence, to find the defendant liable. And the defense should say the plaintiff failed to prove the necessary elements by a preponderance of the evidence.

E. Critique

Rule 43. The Critique
There is no oral critique from the judging panel. At the conclusion of the trial, each judge may offer a general, brief congratulatory comment to each team. Substantive comments or constructive criticism from judges may be included in judges’ ballots, at their discretion. Judges’ written comments will be given to teams in the week following the competition.

VIII. FEDERAL RULES OF EVIDENCE – Mock Trial Version

To assure a fair hearing, certain rules have been developed to govern the types of evidence that may be introduced, as well as the manner in which evidence may be presented. These rules are called the “rules of evidence.” The attorneys and the judge are responsible for enforcing these rules. Before the judge can apply a rule of evidence, an attorney must ask the judge to do so. Attorneys do this by making “objections” to the evidence or procedure employed by the opposing side. When an objection is raised, the attorney who asked the question that is being challenged will usually be asked by the judge why the question was not in violation of the rules of evidence.

These rules are designed to ensure that all parties receive a fair hearing and to exclude evidence deemed irrelevant, incompetent, untrustworthy, unduly prejudicial, or otherwise improper. If it appears that a rule of evidence is being violated, an attorney may raise an objection to the judge. The judge then decides whether the rule has been violated and whether the evidence must be excluded from the record of the trial. In the absence of a properly made objection, however, the evidence will probably be allowed by the judge. The burden is on the mock trial team to know the Federal Rules of Evidence (Mock Trial Version) and to be able to use them to protect their client and fairly limit the actions of opposing counsel and their witnesses.

For purposes of mock trial competition, the Rules of Evidence have been modified and simplified. They are based on the Federal Rules of Evidence, and its numbering system. Where rule numbers or letters are skipped, those rules were not deemed applicable to mock trial procedure. Text in italics represents simplified or modified language.

Not all judges will interpret the Rules the same way and mock trial attorneys should be prepared to point out specific rules (quoting if necessary) and to argue persuasively for the interpretation and application of the rule they think appropriate.

The mock trial Rules of Competition and these Federal Rules of Evidence - Mock Trial Version govern the Oregon High School Mock Trial Competition.

Article I. General Provisions

Rule 101. Scope
These Federal Rules of Evidence - Mock Trial Version govern the trial proceedings of the Oregon High School Mock Trial Competition.

Rule 102. Purpose and Construction
These Rules are intended to secure fairness in administration of the trials, eliminate unjust delay, and promote the laws of evidence so that the truth may be ascertained.

Article IV. Relevancy and Its Limits

Rule 401. Definition of “Relevant Evidence”
“Relevant evidence” means evidence having any tendency to make the existence of any fact that is of consequence to the determination of the action more probable or less probable than it would be without the evidence.

Rule 402. Relevant Evidence Generally Admissible: Irrelevant Evidence Inadmissible
Relevant evidence is admissible, except as otherwise provided in these Rules. Irrelevant evidence is not admissible.

Explanation: Questions and answers must relate to an issue in the case; this is called “relevance.” Questions or answers that do not relate to an issue in the case are “irrelevant” and inadmissible.

Example: (in a traffic accident case) “Mrs. Smith, how many times have you been married?”

Rule 403. Exclusion of Relevant Evidence on Grounds of Prejudice, Confusion, or Waste of Time
Although relevant, evidence may be excluded if its probative value is outweighed by the danger of unfair prejudice, if it confuses the issues, if it is misleading, or if it causes undue delay, wastes of time. or is a needless presentation of cumulative evidence.
Rule 404. Character Evidence Not admissible to Prove Conduct; Exceptions; Other Crimes

(a) Character Evidence. – Evidence of a person’s character or character trait, is not admissible to prove action regarding a particular occasion, except:
   (1) Character of accused. – Evidence of a pertinent character trait offered by an accused, or by the prosecution to rebut same;
   (2) Character of victim. – Evidence of a pertinent character trait of the victim of the crime offered by an accused, or by the prosecution to rebut same, or evidence of a character trait of peacefulness of the victim offered by the prosecution in a homicide case to rebut evidence that the victim was the aggressor;
   (3) Character of witness. – Evidence of the character of a witness as provided in Rules 607, and 608.

(b) Other crimes, wrongs, or acts. – Evidence of other crimes, wrongs, or acts is not admissible to prove character of a person in order to show an action conforms to character. It may, however, be admissible for other purposes, such as proof of motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, or absence of mistake or accident.

Rule 405. Methods of Proving Character

(a) Reputation or opinion. – In all cases where evidence of character or a character trait is admissible, proof may be by testimony as to reputation or in the form of an opinion. On cross-examination, questions may be asked regarding relevant, specific conduct.

(b) Specific instances of conduct. – In cases where character or a character trait is an essential element of a charge, claim, or defense, proof may also be made of specific instances of that person’s conduct.

Rule 407. Subsequent Remedial Measures

When measures are taken after an event which, if taken before, would have made the event less likely to occur, evidence of the subsequent measures is not admissible to prove negligence or culpable conduct in connection with the event. This rule does not require the exclusion of evidence or subsequent measures when offered for another purpose, such as proving ownership, control, or feasibility of precautionary measures, if controverted, or impeachment.

Rule 408. Compromise and Offers to Compromise

Evidence of (1) furnishing or offering or promising to furnish, or (2) accepting or offering or promising to accept, a valuable consideration in compromising or attempting to compromise a claim which was disputed as to either validity or amount, is not admissible to prove liability for or invalidity of the claim or its amount. Evidence of conduct or statements made in compromise negotiations is likewise not admissible. This rule does not require the exclusions of any evidence otherwise discoverable merely because it is presented in the course of compromise negotiations. This rule also does not require exclusion when the evidence is offered for another purpose, such as proving bias or prejudice of a witness, negating a contention of undue delay, or proving an effort to obstruct investigation or prosecution.

Rule 409. Payment of Medical or Similar Expenses

Evidence of furnishing or offering or promising to pay medical, hospital, or similar expenses occasioned by an injury is not admissible to prove liability for the injury.
Rule 411. Liability Insurance (civil case only)
Evidence that a person was or was not insured against liability is not admissible upon the issue whether the person acted negligently or otherwise wrongfully. This rule does not require the exclusion of evidence of insurance against liability when offered for another purpose, such as proof of agency, ownership, or control, or bias or prejudice of a witness.

Article VI. Witnesses

Rule 601. General Rule of Competency
Every person is competent to be a witness.

Rule 602. Lack of Personal Knowledge
A witness may not testify to a matter unless the witness has personal knowledge of the matter. Evidence to prove personal knowledge may, but need not, consist of the witness’ own testimony. This rule is subject to the provisions of Rule 703, related to opinion testimony by expert witnesses. (See Rule 3.)

Example: “I know Harry well enough to know that two beers usually make him drunk, so I’m sure he was drunk that night, too.”

Rule 607. Who May Impeach
The credibility of a witness may be attacked or challenged by any party, including the party calling the witness.

Explanation: On cross-examination, an attorney wants to show that the witness should not be believed. This is best accomplished through a process called “impeachment,” which may use one of the following tactics: (1) asking questions about prior conduct of the witness that makes the witness’ truthfulness doubtful (e.g. “isn’t it true that you once lost a job because you falsified expense reports?”); (2) asking about evidence of certain types of criminal convictions (e.g. “you were convicted of shoplifting, weren’t you?); or (3) showing that the witness has contradicted a prior statement, particularly one made by the witness in an affidavit, also called witness statements.

In order to impeach the witness by comparing information in the affidavit to the witness’ testimony, attorneys should use this procedure:
Step 1: Introduce the affidavit for identification (see Rule 38).
Step 2: Repeat the statement the witness made on direct or cross-examination that contradicts the affidavit.

Example: “Now, Mrs. Burns, on direct examination you testified that you were out of town on the night in question, didn’t you?”
Witness responds, “yes.”

Step 3: Ask the witness to read from his or her affidavit the part that contradicts the statement made on direct examination.

Example: “All right, Mrs. Burns, will you read line #18?” Witness reads, “Harry and I decided to stay in town and go to the theater.”

Step 4: Dramatize the conflict in the statements. Remember, the point of this line of questioning is to demonstrate the contradiction in the statements, not to determine whether Mrs. Burns was in town or not.

Example: “So, Mrs. Burns, you testified that you were out of town in the night in question didn’t you?”
“Yes.”
“Yet in your affidavit you said you were in town, didn’t you?”
“Yes.”

Rule 608. Evidence of Character and Conduct of Witness
(a) Opinion and reputation evidence of character. – The credibility of a witness may be attacked or supported by evidence in the form of opinion or reputation, but subject to these limitations: (1) the evidence may refer only to character for truthfulness or untruthfulness, and (2) evidence of truthful character is admissible only after the character of the witness for truthfulness has been attacked by opinion or reputation evidence, or otherwise.

(b) Specific instances of conduct. – Specific instances of the conduct of a witness, for the purpose of attacking or supporting the witness’ credibility, other than conviction of crime as provided in Rule 609, may not be proved by extrinsic evidence. They may, however, in the discretion of the Court, if probative of truthfulness or untruthfulness, be asked on cross-examination of the witness (1) concerning the witness’ character for truthfulness or untruthfulness, or (2) concerning the character of truthfulness or untruthfulness of another witness as to which character the witness being cross-examined has testified.

Testimony, whether by an accused or by any other witness, does not operate as a waiver of the accused’s or the witness’ privilege against self-incrimination with respect to matters related only to credibility.

Rule 609. Impeachment by Evidence of Conviction of Crime
(a) General rule. For the purpose of attacking the character for truthfulness of a witness, (1) evidence that a witness other than an accused been convicted of a crime shall be admitted, subject to Rule 403, if the crime was punishable by death or imprisonment in excess of one year under the law under which the witness was convicted, and evidence that an accused has been convicted of such a crime shall be admitted if the court determines that the probative value of admitting this evidence outweighs its prejudicial effect to the accused; and (2) evidence that any witness has been convicted of a crime shall be admitted regardless of the punishment, if it readily can be determined that establishing the elements of the crime required proof or admission of an act of dishonesty or false statement by the witness.

Rule 610. Religious Beliefs or Opinions. Not applicable.

Rule 611. Mode and Order of Interrogation and Presentation
(a) Control by Court. -- The Court shall exercise reasonable control over questioning of witnesses and presenting evidence so as to: (1) make the questioning and presentation effective for ascertaining the truth, (2) avoid needless use of time, and (3) protect witnesses from harassment or undue embarrassment.
(b) Scope of cross examination. -- The scope of cross examination shall not be limited to the scope of the direct examination, but may inquire into any relevant facts or matters contained in the witness’ statement, including all reasonable inferences that can be drawn from those facts and matters, and may inquire into any omissions from the witness statement that are otherwise material and admissible.

Explanation: Cross examination follows the opposing attorney’s direct examination of his/her witness. Attorneys conduct cross examination to explore weaknesses in the opponent’s case, test the witness’s credibility, and establish some of the facts of the cross-examiner’s case whenever possible. Cross examination should:

• call for answers based on information given in witness statements or fact situation;
• use leading questions which are designed to get “yes” or “no” answers;
• never give the witness a chance to unpleasantly surprise the attorney;
• include questions that show the witness is prejudiced or biased or has a personal interest in the outcome of the case;
• include questions that show an expert witness or even a lay witness who has testified to an opinion is not competent or qualified due to lack of training or experience;

Examples of proper questions include: “Isn’t it a fact that...?” “Wouldn’t you agree that...?” “Don’t you think that...?”

Cross examination should conclude with:
“Thank you Mr./s ______ (last name). That will be all, your Honor.”

Tips: Be relaxed and ready to adapt your prepared questions to the actual testimony given during direct examination; always listen to the witness’s answer; avoid giving the witness an opportunity to re-emphasize the points made against your case during direct examination; don’t harass or attempt to intimidate the witness; and do not quarrel with the witness. Be brief; ask only questions to which you already know the answer.

(c) Leading questions. -- Leading questions are not permitted on direct examination of a witness (except as may be necessary to develop the witness’ testimony). Leading questions are permitted on cross examination.

Explanation: A “leading” question is one that suggests the answer desired by the questioner, usually by stating some facts not previously discussed and then asking the witness to give a yes or no answer.

Example: “So, Mr. Smith, you took Ms. Jones to a movie that night, didn’t you?” This is an appropriate question for cross-examination but not direct or re-direct.

(d) Redirect/Re-Cross. -- After cross examination, additional questions may be asked by the direct examining attorney, but questions must be limited to matters raised by the attorney on cross examination. Likewise, additional questions may be asked by the cross examining attorney on re-cross, but such questions must be limited to matters raised on redirect examination and should avoid repetition. For both redirect and re-cross, attorneys are limited to two questions each.

Explanation: Short re-direct examination is allowed following cross-examination, and re-cross may follow re-direct. In both instances, questions must be on a subject raised in the immediately preceding testimony. If an attorney asks questions on topics not raised earlier, the objection should be “beyond the scope of re-direct/cross.” See Rule 44.
Article VII. Opinions and Expert Testimony

Rule 701. Opinion Testimony by Lay Witness
If the witness is not testifying as an expert, the witness’ testimony in the form of opinions or inferences is limited to those opinions or inferences which are (a) rationally based on the perception of the witness and (b) helpful to a clear understanding of the witness’ testimony or the determination of a fact in issue.

Explanation: Unless a witness is qualified as an expert in the appropriate field, such as medicine or ballistics, the witness may not give an opinion about matters relating to that field. But a witness may give an opinion on his/her perceptions if it helps the case.
Example - inadmissible lay opinion testimony: “The doctor put my cast on wrong. That’s why I have a limp now.”
Example - admissible lay opinion testimony: “He seemed to be driving pretty fast for a residential street.”

Rule 702. Testimony by Experts
If scientific, technical, or other specialized knowledge will assist the trier of fact to understand the evidence or to determine a fact in issue, a witness qualified as an expert by knowledge, skill, experience, training, or education, may testify in the form of an opinion or otherwise.

Note: The usual mock trial practice is that attorneys qualify a witness as an expert by asking questions from the list suggested above. After establishing the witness as an expert by asking about his or her background, the attorney then asks the judge to qualify the witness as an expert.
Note: In criminal cases, witnesses, including experts, cannot give opinions on the ultimate issue of the case, that is, whether the defendant was guilty. This is a matter for the judge or jury to decide.

Rule 703. Bases of Opinion Testimony by Experts
The facts or data upon which an expert bases an opinion may be those perceived by or made known to the expert at or before the hearing. If of a type reasonably relied upon by experts in the field in forming opinions or inferences, the facts or data need not be admissible in evidence.

Explanation: Unlike lay witnesses who must base their opinions on what they actually see and hear, expert witnesses can base their opinions on what they have read in articles, texts, or records they were asked to review by a lawyer, or other documents which may not actually be admitted into evidence at the trial. These records or documents may include statements made by other witnesses.

Rule 704. Opinion on Ultimate Issue
(a) opinion or inference testimony otherwise admissible is not objectionable because it embraces an issue to be decided by the trier of fact. (b) In a criminal case, an expert witness shall not express an opinion as to the guilt or innocence of the accused.

Note: In criminal cases, witnesses, including experts, cannot have opinions on the guilt or innocence of the defendant. This is a matter for the judge or jury to decide.
Article VIII. Hearsay

Rule 801. Definitions
The following definitions apply under this article:
(a) Statement -- A statement is an oral or written assertion or nonverbal conduct of a person, if it is intended by the person as an assertion.
(b) Declarant -- A declarant is a person who makes a statement.
(c) Hearsay -- Hearsay is a statement, other than one made by the declarant while testifying at the trial or hearing, offered in evidence to prove the truth of the matter asserted.

Explanation: If a witness tries to repeat what someone has said, the witness is usually stopped from doing so by the hearsay rule. Hearsay is a statement made by someone other than the witness while testifying. Because the statement was made outside the courtroom, usually a long time before the trial, it is called an “out-of-court statement.” The hearsay rule also applies to written statements. The person who made the statement is referred to as the “declarant.” Because the declarant did not make the statement in court under oath and subject to cross examination, the declarant’s statement is not considered reliable.

Example: Witness testifies in court, “Harry told me the blue car was speeding.” What Harry said is hearsay because he is not the one testifying. He is not under oath, cannot be cross-examined, and his demeanor cannot be assessed by the judge or jury. Further, the witness repeating Harry’s statement might be distorting or misinterpreting what Harry actually said. For these reasons, Harry’s statement, as repeated by the witness, is not reliable and therefore not admissible. The same is true if Harry’s prior written statement was offered.

Only out-of-court statements which are offered to prove what is said in the statements are considered hearsay. For example, a letter that is an out of court statement is not hearsay if it is offered to show that the person who wrote the letter was acquainted with the person who received it. But if the letter was offered to prove that what was said in the letter was true, it would be hearsay.

(d) Statements which are not hearsay -- A statement is not hearsay if:
(1) Prior statement by witness -- the declarant testifies at the trial or hearing and is subject to cross examination concerning the statement and the statement is
   (A) inconsistent with the declarant’s testimony, and was given under oath subject to the penalty of perjury at a trial, hearing, or other proceeding, or in a deposition or
   (B) consistent with the declarant’s testimony and is offered to rebut an express or implied charge against the declarant of recent fabrication or improper influence or motive, or
   (C) one of identification or a person made after perceiving the person; or Explanation: If any witness testifies at trial, and the testimony is different from what the witness said previously, the cross-examining lawyer can bring out the inconsistency. In the witnesses’ statements in the mock trial materials (considered to be affidavits), prior inconsistent statements may be found (see Impeachment Rule 607).

(2) Admission by a party-opponent -- The statement is offered against a party and is (A) the party’s own statement in either an individual or a representative capacity or (B) a statement of which the party has manifested an adoption or belief in its truth, or (C) a statement by a person authorized by the party to make a statement concerning the subject, or (D) a statement by the party’s agent or servant concerning a matter within the scope of the agency or employment, made during the existence of the relationship, or (E) a statement by a co-conspirator of a party during the course in furtherance of the conspiracy.

Explanation: A statement made previously by a party (either the prosecution or defendant) is admissible against that party when offered by the other side. Admissions may be found in the prosecution’s or defendant’s own witness statements. They may also be in the form of spoken statements made to other witnesses.

Rule 802. Hearsay Rule
Hearsay is not admissible, except as provided by these rules.

Rule 803. Hearsay Exceptions, Availability of Declarant Immaterial
The following are not excluded by the hearsay rule, even though the declarant is available as a witness:

1. Present sense impression -- A statement describing or explaining an event or condition made while the declarant was perceiving the event or condition, or immediately thereafter.

   Example: As the car drove by Janet remarked, "wow, that car is really speeding."

2. Excited utterance -- A statement relating to a startling event or condition made while the declarant was under the stress of excitement caused by the event or condition.

   Example: the witness testifies, “Mary came running out of the store and said, ‘Cal shot Rob!’”

3. Then existing mental, emotional, or physical conditions -- A statement of the declarant’s then existing state of mind, emotion, sensation, or physical condition (such as intent, plan, motive, design, mental feeling, pain, and bodily health), but not including a statement of memory of belief to prove the fact remembered or believed unless it relates to the execution, revocation, identification, or terms of a declarant’s will.

   Example: A witness testifies, “Mary told me she was in a lot of pain and extremely angry at the other driver.”

4. Statements for purposes of medical diagnosis or treatment -- Statements made for the purpose of medical diagnosis or treatment.

5. Records of regularly conducted activity. A memorandum, report, record, or data compilation of acts, events, conditions, opinions, or diagnoses, made at or near the time by, or from information transmitted by, a person with knowledge, if kept in the course of a regularly conducted business activity.

6. Reputation as to character. Reputation of a person's character among associates or in the community.
Rule 805. Hearsay within Hearsay
Hearsay included within hearsay is not excluded under the hearsay if each part of the combined statement conforms with an exception to the hearsay rule provided in these rules.

Example: A police report contains a notation written by the officer, “Harry told me the blue car was speeding.” The report might be admissible as a business record but Harry’s statement within the report is hearsay.

IX. NOTES TO JUDGES

A. Notes to Judges
To ensure that the mock trial experience is the best it can be for students, please familiarize yourself with both affidavits and the rules of competition. Mock trial rules sometimes differ with what happens in a court of law. Particular attention should be paid to the simplified rules of evidence. The students have worked hard for many months and are disappointed when judges are not familiar with the case materials.

Please note that the mock trial competition differs from a real trial situation in the following ways:

1. Students are prohibited from making objections or using trial procedures not listed in the mock trial materials. Students should request a bench conference (to be held in open court from counsel table) if they think the opposing attorneys are using trial procedures outside the rules.

2. Students are limited to the information in the witness statements and fact situation. If a witness invents information, the opposing attorney may object on the grounds that the information is beyond the scope of the mock trial materials. The presiding judge should request a bench conference (to be held in open court from counsel table) and ask the students to find where the information is included in the case materials.

3. Bailiffs are the official timekeepers. The defense team is responsible for providing the bailiff (plaintiff/prosecution provides the clerk). Bailiffs time all phases of the trial.

4. Students have been instructed to address their presentations to the judge and jury. The students will address the presiding judge as the judge in the case and the other judges as jurors since they are in the jury box.

5. Each trial round should be completed in less than two hours. To keep the competition on schedule, please keep within the time limits set out in Rule 12.

6. Judges shall not give an oral critique at the end of the trial. At the conclusion of the trial, each judge may offer a general congratulatory comment to each team. Substantive comments or constructive criticism may be included in judges’ ballots, at their discretion. Judges’ written comments will be given to teams in the week following the competition. (Rule 43)

Each courtroom will be assigned a panel of three judges. The judging panel will usually be comprised of two representatives from the legal field and one educator or community representative. The presiding judge will sit at the bench and the other two judges will sit in the jury box.
B. Introductory Matters
The presiding judge should handle the following introductory matters prior to the beginning of the trial:

1. Ask each side if it is ready for trial. Ask each side to provide each judge with a copy of its Team Roster. Ask each member of a team to rise and identify himself/herself by name and role, and their team by their assigned letter designation (not by school name).

2. If video or audio recorders are present, inquire of both teams whether they have approved the taping of the round.

3. Ask if there are people present in the courtroom who are connected with other schools in the competition (other than the schools competing in this courtroom). If so, they should be asked to leave. They may contact the sponsor's communication center to determine the location of the courtroom in which their school is performing.

4. Remind spectators of the importance of showing respect for the teams. Silence electronic devices. Judges may remove spectators who do not adhere to appropriate courtroom decorum.

5. Remind teams that witnesses are permitted to testify only to the information in the fact situation, their witness statements, and what can be reasonably inferred from the information.

6. Remind teams that they must complete their presentations within the specified time limits. The bailiff will signal you as the time for each segment of presentation runs out (3 and 1 minute warning and then 0 minute cards will be held up). At the end of each segment you will be stopped when your time has run out whether you are finished or not.

7. All witnesses must be called.

8. Only the following exhibits may be offered as evidence at the trial:
   1. Screenshot of Facebook Post
   2. Rohypnol Bottle
   3. Draft Email Recovered from Smartphone
   4. Toxicology Report

Finally, before you begin, indicate that you have been assured that the Code of Ethical Conduct has been read and will be followed by all participants in the mock trial competition. Should there be a recess at any time during the trial, the communication rule (see third paragraph of Code of Ethical Conduct) shall be in effect. If there are no other questions, begin the trial.

At the end of the trial, the presiding judge shall ask teams if either side wishes to make a Rule 26 Violation. If so, resolve the matter as indicated in the rule. Then judges complete their ballots.  Judges shall NOT inform the students of results of their scores or results from their ballots.  The presiding judge may, however, announce a ruling on the legal merits of the case – that is, which side would have prevailed if the trial were real – being careful to differentiate that winning the trial has no bearing on which side won on performance (on judges’ ballots).

C. Evaluation Guidelines
All teams will compete in all three rounds (unless a team has a bye). Teams are randomly matched for Round 1 and then power matched based on win/loss record, total ballots (which is the number of scoring judges' votes), and total number of points.
Teams will provide Team Rosters to each judge. The rosters are helpful for note-taking and reference when evaluating performances.

Judges will be provided with individual ballots by the Competition Coordinator. Ballots shall be completed and given to the Clerk to deliver to the scoring room immediately following completion of the round. Judges will not provide oral critique. Judges shall score and provide any comments on their ballot. Teams will be provided photocopies of judges’ ballots after the competition, usually the following week. Scoring duties among the three judges shall be distributed as follows:

- The presiding judge shall score based on overall strategy and performance – the “big picture.”
- The attorney-judge shall score the attorneys’ performances.
- The educator-community judge shall score the witnesses’, clerk’s and bailiff’s performances.

Judges should use the following evaluation guidelines when scoring.

EVALUATION GUIDELINES

Each judge shall assign a score of 1-5 in each blank of the scoresheet. The presiding judge scores on overall performance, attorney-judge on attorneys, and educator-community judge on witnesses, clerk and bailiff. The total score, minus any penalty points, is the number that should be entered at the bottom the scoresheet and returned to the Competition Coordinator. See sample scoresheets in the Appendix. Judges shall score based on the following guidelines:

1 pt  Not effective. Unsure, illogical, uninformed, unprepared, ineffective communication skills.

2 pts  Fair. Minimally informed and prepared; passable performance but lack of depth in terms of knowledge of task and materials. Communication lacked clarity and conviction.

3 pts  Good. Good, solid but not spectacular; can perform outside script but with less confidence; logic and organization adequate but not outstanding. Grasp of major aspects of case. Communications clear and understandable but could be more fluent and persuasive.

4 pts  Excellent. Fluent, persuasive, clear, understandable; organized material and thoughts well and exhibited mastery of case and materials.

5 pts  Outstanding. Superior in qualities listed in above. Demonstrated ability to think on feet, poised under duress; sorted out essential from nonessential, used time effectively to accomplish major objectives. Demonstrated unique ability to utilize all resources to emphasize vital points of trial. Team members were courteous, observed proper courtroom decorum, spoke clearly and distinctly. All team members were involved in the presentation and participated actively in fulfilling their respective roles, including the Clerk and Bailiff. The Clerk and Bailiff performed their roles so that there were no disruptions or delays in the presentation of the trial. Team members demonstrated cooperation and teamwork.
D. Penalty Points
Points should be deducted if a team member:

1. Uses procedures beyond the mock trial rules.
2. Goes beyond the scope of the mock trial materials.
3. Does not follow mock trial rules in any other way.
4. Talks to coaches, non-performing team members or other observers. This includes breaks or recesses, if any should occur, in the trial: mandatory 2-point penalty. The Competition Coordinator and judge have discretion to determine whether a communication was harmful.
5. Does not call all witnesses: mandatory 2-point penalty.

Judges may assign the number of penalty points at their discretion except where otherwise indicated. Use whole numbers only (no fractions!). A unanimous decision among the three judges is not required.

Note: The behavior of teachers and attorney coaches may impact a team’s score.

The judges’ decision is final.

Judges shall not engage in any discussion with students or coaches about scoring after the trial. Any questions from teams about scoring should be referred to the Competition Coordinators.
APPENDICES
Often Used Objections in Suggested Form

Note: This exhibit is provided to assist students with the proper form of objections. It is NOT a comprehensive list of all objections. Permissible objections are those related to a rule in the mock trial material (examples below). Impermissible objections are those not related to mock trial rules (example: hearsay based on business records exception). That is to say, an objection must be based on a rule found in the Mock Trial materials, not additional ones even if they are commonly used by lawyers in real cases.

The following objections are often heard in mock trials but do not represent an exhaustive list.

Note: Objections during the testimony of a witness will be permitted only by the direct examining and cross-examining attorneys for that witness.

1. Leading Question (see Rule 611)
   Objection: "Objection, Your Honor, counsel is leading the witness." (Opposing Attorney)
   Response: "Your Honor, leading is permissible on cross-examination," or "I'll rephrase the question." For example, the question would not be leading if rephrased as: "Mr. Smith, where did you and Ms. Jones go that night?" (This does not ask for a yes or no answer.)

2. Relevance (see Rule 402)
   Objection: "Your Honor, this question is irrelevant to this case."
   Response: "Your Honor, this series of questions will show that Mrs. Smith's first husband was killed in an auto accident, and this fact has increased her mental suffering in this case."

3. Hearsay (see Rules 801, 802, 803, 805)
   Objection: "Objection, Your Honor, this is hearsay."
   Response: "Your Honor, this is an exception/exclusion to the hearsay rule." (Explain applicable provisions.)

4. Personal Knowledge (see Rule 602)
   Objection: "Your Honor, the witness has no personal knowledge of Harry's condition that night."
   Response: "The witness is just generally describing her usual experience with Harry."

5. Opinions (see Rule 701)
   Objection: "Objection, Your Honor, the witness is giving an opinion."
   Response: "Your Honor, the witness may answer the question because ordinary persons can judge whether a car is speeding."

6. Outside the Scope of Mock Trial Materials/Rules (see Rule 4)
   Objection: "Objection, Your Honor. The witness is testifying to information not found in the mock trial materials."
   Response: "The witness is making a reasonable inference."

The presiding judge may call a bench conference for clarification from both attorneys.
