

Classroom Law Project presents...

Oregon Civics Conference

Conference on Oregon Government

Friday, December 2, 2011,* 8:00am – 4:00pm
State Capitol Building, 900 Court Street NE, Salem

Meet the Governor!

This conference is for teachers of every discipline. Get an insider's view of government - sit in the Senate Chambers, go to workshops in hearing rooms, and see the historic Supreme Court Courtroom. Learn more about your government from the folks we put in office.

Join us for this remarkable opportunity and to return to school knowing more about

- the Governor - directly from Governor John Kitzhaber,
- education policy - directly from Ben Cannon, Education Policy Advisor to the Governor,
- elections - directly from Kate Brown, Secretary of State,
- Oregon courts and cases - directly from a Supreme Court Justice,
- and more!

You will also receive an armload of lessons, materials, and ideas that can be put right to work in classrooms!

Conference Fee (deadline Fri., Nov. 18)

- $50 – One Teacher
- $40 – Per teacher for 2+ teachers from the same school
- $10 – Currently enrolled full-time undergraduate or graduate student
- ADD $25 – Late registration fee (after November 18)

Other Goodies

- Giveaways for all participants
- $50 travel stipend offered for teachers traveling 150+ miles roundtrip (contact CLP if travel requires an overnight stay)
- PDUs available
- Option to receive 0.5 credit from Lewis & Clark College

2010 Oregon Civics Conference

CLASSROOM
LAW PROJECT®

Questions? Contact
Classroom Law Project at office@classroomlaw.org
or (503) 224-4424

Register online at www.classroomlaw.org

Oregon legislature declared first Friday in December “Oregon Civics Day for Teachers.” It’s the law! (ORS 336.029)

“As a civics teacher, I enjoyed the chance to hear from so many great public servants. I learned a lot in so many categories. Thanks so much! ---2010 Conference Attendee”