

SEEING IS BELIEVING

An Observe and Learn Workshop for High School Teachers

*This dynamic workshop combines observing the highly acclaimed
We the People State competition with discussion of the curriculum, and how to get started in your school*

Who: High school teachers using the We the People: The Citizen & the Constitution textbook, teachers who wish they were, and teachers wanting to know more!

What: A day-long workshop organized so that teachers observe students compete in the state finals of the We the People competition, then participate in an interactive session with other teachers to review, debrief, dissect, and learn from what was seen.

Where: Hatfield Federal Courthouse, 1000 SW 3rd Ave, downtown Portland

When: Saturday, January 21, 2012, 9:00am – 4:00pm

Why: The We the People program is like none other. Students begin knowing little about the Constitution but leave owning it. At the culminating event – the high school competition – six schools compete for the right to represent Oregon at the national finals in Washington, D.C.

Teams compete in mock congressional hearings posing as experts testifying about the Constitution. Students are questioned by state and federal judges, constitutional scholars, and other civic leaders. And they respond with assuredness, authority, poise, and passion. It is unrehearsed. It is powerful. And it will knock your socks off.

Incentives:

- $50 travel stipend for teachers traveling 150+ miles roundtrip
(contact CLP if travel requires an overnight stay)
- Professional Development Units (6 hours)

Cost: FREE! $20 reservation fee will be refunded after attending the workshop. Lunch is provided.
