South Eugene grad to be White House intern

Stephanie Beechem, a 2004 graduate of South Eugene High School and more recent student at the University of Washington, is among 141 students across the nation selected as spring interns at the White House.

The White House Internship Program's mission is to make the White House accessible to future leaders and to cultivate and prepare those devoted to public service for future leadership opportunities.

Interns work in one of several White House departments, including the Office of Cabinet Affairs, the Office of the Chief of Staff, the Office of Scheduling and Advance, the Office of Public Engagement and Intergovernmental Affairs, the Office of Health Reform, the Office of Legislative Affairs, the Office of Management and Administration, the Office of White House Counsel, the Office of Energy and Climate Change, the National Economic Council, the Office of Presidential Correspondence, the Presidential Personnel Office, the Communications Department, the Domestic Policy Council, the Office of the First Lady, and the Office of the Vice President.

Championship cheer team to be honored

HARRISBURG — The state champion cheerleading team from 1985 will receive recognition and a board will be mounted on the Harrisburg High School gym wall at 7 p.m. Friday.

The team members in 1985 included Candi McClure, Teresa Shelton, Darbi Prom, Heidi Schram and Karen Goracke (all maiden names). Their adviser was Cookie Gaines.

The Booster Club arranged to have the board professionally painted by Larry Buckles of Junction City.

For more information, call 541-520-5745.

Edgewood team places second in BPA contest
