Titan debators argue way to No. 6 finish

West Salem High School argued successfully through two rounds before finishing sixth at the state Mock Trial state championships held recently at Hatfield Federal Courthouse in downtown Portland.

Catlin Gabel School Blue team took the title, followed respectively by West Linn High School Green, Grant High School Blue and Jesuit High School Gold.

"West Salem finished 6th: they argued the case three times during the course of the state championship and they won two of the three rounds," said Barbara Rost, Mock Trial program director. "The only one they lost was to the team that ultimately won the whole competition, Catlin Gabel School."

The Titans were among 16 teams that advanced to the state finals. The preceding regional Mock Trials involved 850 students from 49 area high schools.

Mock Trial is a part of the Classroom Law Project, which promotes democracy, civics and active participation in the community. For information, visit www.classroomlaw.org.
